

We love cosmetics.

As the premier global solutions provider in the cosmetics industry, Weckerle Cosmetics delivers leading innovation on all aspects of contract manufacturing with full-service beauty products for the lips, eyes, face, and body. A global leader for over 40 years, Weckerle innovation begins with our cutting-edge science and machine manufacturing technology and extends to our polished design and packaging services for the industry's leading brands. We seek to set the par for the cosmetics industry worldwide and remain one of the few contract manufacturers with true full-service capability.

For our location in Carson, CA, we are currently seeking a

Incoming Quality Control Inspector

Summary:

The Quality Control inspector responsibility is to inspect all incoming components in accordance with Z1.4 Mil STD 105D. In addition the Quality Control inspector is responsible for sampling all incoming raw ingredients.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- The Quality Control will visually examine component for discrepancies
- Responsible and in charge of labeling or tagging all components with a component Identification tag if components pass inspection.
- Responsible for accurately completing the Quality Control Component Inspection Report
- In charge of tagging (with a hold tag) and quarantining all failed components.
- Conduct inspections of all Weckerle finished goods this includes other Weckerle facilities
- Responsible for the completion of the incoming inspection report of finished good form
- In charge of monitoring and recording number of defectives identified by using a Z1.4 inspection chart
- Inform department supervisor when percentage of defective components exceeds allowable limits, requiring inspection of entire unit output.
- Responsible to notify and inform all parties involved when a discrepancy is identified.
- Responsible for updating the QC incoming log.
- Responsible for updating the non conformance log
- Responsible for inspecting all outgoing and incoming components from 3rd party company.
- Inspection all UPC labels
- Other duties as assigned by supervisor

The skills you'll need:

- Career Level Required: Experienced (Non-Manager)
- Experience Required: Minimum 3 years experience in QC Environment, clerical experience
- Education Required : High School or Equivalent, also some college helpful

We love cosmetics.

- Job Type: Employee
- Job Status: Full Time

Contact Information:

Laura.Hernandez@Weckerle.com