

We love cosmetics.

As the premier global solutions provider in the cosmetics industry, Weckerle Cosmetics delivers leading innovation on all aspects of contract manufacturing with full-service beauty products for the lips, eyes, face, and body. A global leader for over 40 years, Weckerle innovation begins with our cutting-edge science and machine manufacturing technology and extends to our polished design and packaging services for the industry's leading brands. We seek to set the par for the cosmetics industry worldwide and remain one of the few contract manufacturers with true full-service capability.

For our location in Carson, CA, we are currently seeking a

Mechanic

Summary:

Main responsibilities of this position are to troubleshoot and repair mechanical equipment such, pneumatic tools, conveyor systems, and production machines and equipment including but not limited to:

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Record, diagnosis of machine problem(s), resolution, and total down time of machine, after every repair.
- Working with pneumatic systems
- Maintaining and improving systems
- Work with programmable Logic Controllers
- Work with Servomotors, parameters changes, repair and maintenance
- Working with software for laser labelers such as Domino and Markem Laser
- Work with heating/cooling units such as chillers, air heaters and water heaters
- Preventive Maintenance Program (PMP)
- Markem Laser Equipment
- Machine Failure Modes and testing Effect analysis
- Cold Fill Machines
- Hot Pour Machines
- Conduct a daily check-up on all machinery.

The skills you`ll need:

- Career Level Required: Experienced (Non-Manager)
- Experience Required: Minimum 5+ years experience in Maintenance Mechanic
- Education Required : High School or Equivalent, also some college helpful
- Job Type: Employee
- Job Status: Full Time

Contact Information:

Laura.Hernandez@Weckerle.com

